FRENCH AGAIN HURL FORCES FORWARD IN FIERCE ASSAULT ON GERMAN LEFT WING

BATTLE ON RIGHT WING INDECISIVE, BERLIN STATES

BERLIN, Sept. 20 (by way of Amster- | troops killed, wounded and missing to

No decisive result on the right wing is announced by the War Office today It is added the French have resumed

Two statements, both unusually brief, were issued early today. They

An indecisive battle has occurred on the right wing of the German army in France. Siege guns opened fire Tuesday on the Antwerp fort-

The French have renewed their advances about Verdun. It is quiet here increases the number of German | hospital are named as missing. This total and western theatres of war. In the latest list the 60th Infantry Regiment

A brief statement issued at midnight peror William, for permission to vio

The latest list of casualties issued Prince Adalbert had died in a Brussels

VON BOEHN AND VON KLUK ROUTED, LONDON HEARS

tered

that

Stean

confirm the report that the German

That the armies of both General von failed to hold in the annihilation of South of School Bussian Polant, These are in the war of a direct advance into

"Recklessly Strewed" They

PARIS. Sent. In. Halv fook policy what is generally accurate the Propert bare remarked the cornel as the first step leading to an through the passes in the plains of Hungary as part of the general advance through Galicia toward Cracow, which is now centred at Tarnow; (2), on the Donajec River, after the troops have crossed the Wislok River and the Wisloka, at Dembica. At (3), the German advance into Poland has been checked and their troops forced back to Kalisz. The Russians are also moving in great force from Warsaw toward Mlawa, where the German troops were entrenched, even throwing aerial bombs over Bielestock (4), from which they were forced to retreat. At (5) the Russians have cleaned out all the villages of the German troops and have practically freed Poland of their presence.

MILE IN AIR. AVIATOR SAW WOODS SHOT TO RIBBONS

Member of British Corps Describes Engagement of Great Battle.

LONDON, Sept. 39. A letter from an officer of the Royal ying Corps, under date of September a view from an I was up for reconnai ince over this huge battle. I bet be comembered as the biggest in be south of Laon. It was mar-watching hundreds of shells

AGAINST AUSTRIAN MINES IN ADRIATIC

Menace Italian Shipping. Open Break May Follow that and that the colden craft are there was him Move to Harass En-

AVIATORS OF ALLIES NEW KRUPP GUNS ADD POWER TO KAISER'S KIEL CRUSERS Great Fleet in North Sea Expected to Give Early Battle. COPENHAGEN, Sept. 30.

Germany is strengthening the armament f her fleet in the North Sen, according to reports of travelers who have recently passed through the Kiel Canal. The vesels are being equipped with new ordnance which the Krupp works have perfected after two years of experiment. The new ruisers and dreadnoughts. The canal is described as being crowded with warships, including the largest battleships. The arsenals are busy day and night, and ions trains arrive continuously with immense guns for the ships.

runs are being placed on both armored

The Germans are reported as declaring that the whole fleet soon will be ready has telegraphed to London that the sixth German naval casualty list gives the names of one man killed and 31 officers and 495 men missing. Beginning on Thursday, according to orders issued today by the British naval authorities, no neutral trawlers will be allowed to fish on the east coast of England, but they may continue their operaof Dutch and Danish trawlers now using Grimsby as a fishing base.

"MOVIES" ARTIST KILLED

Max Linder Reported Slain in Battle of the Aisne.

ROME, Sept. 30.—The death in battle of the Aisne of the "movies" artist, Max Linder, is reported in a dispatch from

WOUNDED TEACHER DARES DEADLY FIRE TO HELP COMRADES

Militant Schoolmaster Crawls 500 Yards Across Shell-swept Field to Rescue French Soldiers.

LONDON, Sept. 30. How a former schoolmaster, now in the British army, crawled 500 yards across a battlefield to bring ald for York. A comrade accompanied the achoolmaster on his slow, painful jour-school. Telling of his experiences, he ROSTAND AND HIS WIFE stand our ground at all costs. We did Accused of Cowardice Because of to a hut, and there I found nine others.

"We were exposed to a terrible fire from the artillery, and expected the hut to be blown to pieces at any time. Toward the end of the second day we develod that two of us should voluntear to felch some hylp; so I did, and another for heaviled them of covarides to felch some hylp; so I did, and another for heaviled them of covarides. The party left dimperious a mind a shower of brakhats.

The party left dimperious a mind a shower of brakhats.

Three Warships Move to Harass Enwing instructions sent to this period of the Austrian mine which is received to the Austrian shires passing that it is and many interest in the straits of Magnilan by the British cruners Goodhere. Monmouth and Glerman lines, so we started crawling on all fours. We had no some age to the English report, is not monolight night—the gunners saw us.
How we escaped I don't know. We just managed to turn the corner and were safe, but it took us seven hours to crawl 50 yands. When we reached the
managed to turn the corner and were
safe, but it took us seven hours to crawl 50 yands. When we reached the monitorian to the English report, is not monolight night—the gunners saw us.
How we escaped I don't know. We just
managed to turn the corner and were
safe, but it took us seven hours to crawl 50 yands. When we reached the monitorian in the corner and were safe, but it took us seven hours to crawl 50 yands. When we reached the monitorian in the french the discrete contrary to the English report, is not wounded.

HOMME LIBRE SUSPENDED

PARIS. Sept. 20—The Minister of War has suspended for a week of the cure what I had done and where my comrades were, and had the supreme my comrade of hearing the decrease the search of the care wounded.

How we escaped I don't know. We just
managed to turn the corner and were
managed to turn the corner and were
safe, but it took us seven hours to
managed to turn the corner and were
managed to turn the corner and were managed to turn the corner of the managed to turn the corner of the corner of the managed to turn the corner of the managed to turn reached Tarmow, and that fighter has a differential for the front has a differential for the first in progress there for it must be straightful for the first in progress there for it must be a straightful for the first in progress there for it must be a straightful for the first in progress there for it must be a straightful for the first in progress there is a straightful for this pert.

That the Germans expect for an advance on Cracks

That the Germans expect for an advance on Cracks

That the Germans expect for an advance on Cracks

That the Germans expect for an advance on Cracks

The first point has an investment of the first in progress the form the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first in the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first in the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first in the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first in the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first indicated by a discrept for an advance on Cracks in the Atlantic to the Pacific along the form the Atlantic to the Pacific along the first in the first i

AGENTS OF KAISER REPORTED WORKING IN ENGLISH SOCIETY

With High War Officials. Their Work Scorned by Military Expert.

LONDON, Sept. 20.-The charge that mingle with those close to the Admiralty, military expert, Colonel Charles Reping-

Times makes follow closely the first refrences of First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill to "German lieutenvantage of British hospitality to spread their nets of esplonage." According to Colonel Repington, England has been infested with German sples for years, but there are more here now than ever before, and the German Gov-ernment is offering high pay to men and women of education, culture and com-manding appearance who can mingle with officials of the British Government in ame into touch with the German in extended even to America, where agents acted in the guise of business men.

"Despite its fervid activity, I have not very high opinion of the German lligence system. The failure of department to learn until August 20 that there was a British army in France is the best proof of its incapacity."

CONSUL LIVES IN WINE CELLAR

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Word has been re-ceived here that William Bardel, American Consul at Rheims, his wife and their son and daughter are the only Americans remaining in the city. The Consul and als family, according to the report made their way to a wine cellar 100 feet underground a little way from their home and have spent most of the past two weeks there.

of the American Embassy at Paris, has returned from Rheims. He went there with money for the consulate in company with Whitney Warren, the New York artist, who is reported to be preparing a report on the destruction of the cathedral by the German bombardment

JAPANESE CRUSH FORTS OF TSING-TAO AND MENACE TOWN

Believed Imminent.

PEKIN, Sept. 30. The fall of Tsing-Tao is imminent as result of steady bombardment from both land and sea, according to a stateage had been inflicted on Fort Kalser Point, These two forts, with Fort Moltke, form the centre of the German crushing 19 men to death. The com-bined Japanese and English forces cap-tured the railroad cast of the Tung-Ho River in a night attack, and Tsing-Tao has been completely isolated as a result. The right wing of the Allies now ex-tends to Kiao-Chau Bay west of Liu-Ling, Guns have been mounted there that have a longer range than those on the German gunboals in the have and

STONED BY PARIS MOBS

Flight From French Capital.

OPERA SINGER SAYS GERMANS TORTURED

Were Broken by Officer's Command, for Aiding Belgians-Italy Ripe for War.

Germany has sent hundreds of spies into the well-known barltone of the Metro-England to move in the best society and politan Opera Company, is the latest witness to the truth of the reports of atrog-War Office and Foreign Office was made it is committed by the German army in today by the Times in an article by its Belgium. Mr. Scottl, who arrived in New York last week on the Lusitania, told a reporter yesterday that he had ecen Belgian boys whose wrists had been broken by German soldiers, the boys' sole offense having been that they had ants, who have been living in England taken water and provisions to Belgian fer years and who now are taking ad- soldiers.

Mr. Scotti further stated that public opinion in Italy was rapidly forcing that country into war against Austria and Germany, and asserted that the resignation of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Marchese di San Guillano, would at once precipitate the crisis. "I saw in London a number of Belgian the sole offense of the poor children had been that they had carried water and provisions to the soldiers who were fighting to defend their country. There can be no doubt as to the crueities of blind our eyes to the necessity of putting an end to the Prussian militaristic casts. "In Italy the people are fully alive to the German peril, and their demand for war is becoming louder each day. "If the Marchese di San Giuliano, the liance after the death of Crispi, and naturally does not wish to break with his former friends, but the temper of the Italian people is unmistakable." Mr. Scotti said that if war broke out

"I saw several thousand German prisoners in England," said the baritone, "and they all seemed most happy to be captured. The English were treating them splendidly and they had no desire to return to the army during the war,"

EIGHT ARMY CORPS IN FURIOUS BATTLE

to Renew Checked Advance Against Warsaw. Deny Losing Ground.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 30. The German army, heavily reinforced, is battling today with the Russian army of General Rennenkampf in the territory ment issued at the Japanese Legation between Niemen River and the East Prus-

Four army corps are reported engaged on each side.

The Russians have concentrated their armies along the Niemen, from Vilna and

The Germans are attempting to cut the rallways between Warsaw and Petrograd. The battle will perhaps continue for several weeks.

but heavy fighting continues in the Suwalki district, according to an official report from Grand Dake Nicholas, Commander of all the Russian The report from Grand Duke Nicholas was as fellows:

Niemen, but was repulsed. The bat-tle continues. The Austrians in Galicia have been repulsed near Dulka. The objective of the Germans is the northern outlet to the forests in the Augustowo section, and they are also auxious to get across the Niemen and to retake Gradno, from which they were driven. It is stated that the Russians have made material gains all along the line, although the battle is still far from a decisive stage.

ment are entaged on both sides, and the from Vilna. The Germans have tried to cross the Niemen at several points have been repulsed in every at-

BERLIN, Sept. 39
According to a War Office statement in the East the Germans continue their advance, and the Russian army of Gen-

RUSSIAN ADVANCE SWEEPING HUNGARY NEARS BUDAPEST

Hosts Pour Through Carpathian Passes and Move Briskly Through Unfortified Territory - Galician RECAPTURE OF ST. MIHIEL Campaign Quiet.

PETROGRAD, SHE II The Russian advance Runds of The

The dighting at Dullin is believed to have been with the Austrana, who led : back to Justo and attempted to tally But Visit to Front Convinces Him there. Both Double and Justo are no the Jasielka River. Unofficial advices state time part of

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED

French Repulse Germans Along Meuse, War Office States,

The Hossian undersone families of Bullapper, with a generally accounter fisher the theorem is the pathways in a comparison of the mass are remarked undersoned the formal families of Bullapper, with the French position of the mass are remarked to the columns detained to misse and remarks which the French position is the footblack received of the plane Through true of the passes are remarks which the French position is the footblack received to the columns detained to misse and remarks which the French position is the footblack received to the columns detained to misses are remarks which the French position is the footblack received to the columns detained to misses are remarks which the French position is the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan to the Southern Collision having the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan to the Southern Collision having the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan the first of the most man where which an absolute the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan the first of the southern collision is the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan the first of the southern collision is the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan the first of the southern collision is the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan the first of the southern collision is the footblack received to decidend that the Arrivan to decident the footblack received to decident the f

WINSTON CHURCHILL SAYS

Unofficial advices state that part of Pirst Lord of the British Admirally Winston Churchill, who had just made as all once to the front has are

FOILED INVASION OF FRANCE, SAYS FLYER

Veteran Airman Declares Dirigibles Have Proved Inferior as War Machines Along Marne and Aisne.

PARIS, Sept. 30. Aeroplanes here proved their superiorleft for miles, and then to see the ity over dirigibles as war machines, according to French aviators, who say efficiency of the actual corps. He be-lieves the aviators largely will be responsible for ridding France of the "Persons arriving here from Brussels say that the Germans are preparing to move the administrative headquarters of the military government from Brussels to Narair. This is taken to mean that the Germans are getting ready for the next stand nearer their own frontier."

Namur is on the Germans main line

In fighting that for severity oclipsed
anything of the war to date,

It is admitted that the German right wing must som retire or be isolated and explored, but up to noon today the War Office absolutely was without information of any decided change in the situation on the lattle line north or Paris.

In fighting that for severity oclipsed
anything and are coming up to the German right at Solssons.

It is admitted that the German right
wing must som retire or be isolated and explored that the nero they will be thanks to man to the firm that sols though they we will be able to hunt the Germans out for they will be thanks to man to the firm that at several but or they will be thanks to man to the firm that the accounting up to the carefully disculsed though or they will be steaded though or they will be thanks to man to for the warl be able to hunt the Germans out the will be able to hunt the Germans out
the will be able to hunt the Germans out
the will be able to hunt the Germans out the will be thanks to man to the will be able to hunt the Germans out
to the will be able to hunt the Germans out
to the will be able to hunt the Germans out
the will be able to hunt the Germans out
to the will be able to hunt the Germans out
to the will be able to hunt the Germans out
to the will be able to hunt the Germans out to the will be able to hunt the demans played in this war.

The will be read-them the all the well be able to hunt the demans played in the war.

The

before it rendered exceptional service to the headquarters' staff. It played a de-cisive rele at the battle of the Marne. At the present moment it is a precious auxiliary. I might almost say an indis-pensable adjunct to the victorious march our troops.

I have been instructed to make reconalso are seen instructed to make recom-nissances on many occasions, both in the east and north. In spite of the in-crise fire by the enemy I have been ble to report the situation of the Ger-can troops, note their movements esti-mate their numbers and importance, and

Open Break May Follow
Austria's Refusal to Stop Practice.

ROME Sept. 20.

Half took polar what is generally accompanied to the more proved a sure set. It is at the mercy of any solution of accompanies to the more polar what is proved a sure set. It is at the mercy of any solution of accompanies to the more polar what is the polar what is proved a sure set. It is at the mercy of any solution of accompanies to the more polar way and and be deen not believe it has any military future.

the highest circles of society. In part Colonel Repington says: "The most dangerous of these spies are not the lieutenants, but highly placed ersons who move in good society and also in the realms of finance. The German system extends to all classes. Twenty years ago some of our officers telligence service and learned a great deal about it. Even at that time the net was large and was so widespread that it

American Official and His Family Hide 100 Feet Underground.

Heavy Guns Placed for Germans, Reinforced, Seek Bombardment and Surrender of German Garrison Is Moltke, form the centre of the German stronghold.

In order to shell forts effectively it is necessary to mount guns on Mount Lau-Shan. These were dragged up the mountain for 200 feet under cover of an attack that kept the real plan of the Japanese concaled. When the German-discovered what the Japanese troops were doing, four guns already had reached the position chosen.

A bursting shell killed the soldiers who were drawing up the fifth, and it fell back to the bottom of the mountain, crushing 10 men to death. The combined Japanese and English forces captured to the soldiers who were drawing up the fifth, and it fell back to the bottom of the mountain.

Suwalkit report for each the Received the position chosen.

Before the German gunboats were driven back, bombs dropped from nero-planes had killed a number of English

PIGEONS UNDER UNION JACK

BOYS UNDER ORDERS Spies Said to Be Mingling Scotti Asserts Lads' Wrists

NEW YORK, Sept. 30,-Antonio Scottle boys with both wrists broken," said Mr. Scotti, "It was horrible, especially when the Germans. One's eyes do not deceive. "These crueities, however, seem to be due to the orders of the officers rather than to the brutality of the individual soldier. The German officer is above all ordinary law, and much sympathy as we have for the German people should not Minister of Foreign Affairs, resigns, it means Italy's immediate entrance into the struggle. "The Marchese signed the Triple Al-

Enrico Caruso would not be forced to fight, as no one would have to serve who was more than 40 years old. He added that Signor Gatti-Casazza had en-gaged a special steamer which would sall from Genoa on October 15, carrying all the members of the Metropolitan Opera Company who had not sailed for America.

ON POLISH BORDER

today. It said that Fort litis already sian frontier. The fighting is especially has been silenced and that heavy dam- desperate in the vicinity of Ossowiecz, Druskiniki and Augustowe.

The German forces have been repulsed in their endeavor to cross the Niemen,

There was severe fighting on Sep-tember 24 near Ossowiecz and Drus-scniki. The enemy tried to cross the

The Intransigeant says that Edmond Rostand, the famous poet and dramatist, his wife and the Countres Nosilles, who were induced to leave Paris when the Germans approached on the argument that the enemy would make them host-axes, were stoned by a crowd at Chatesauroux during an automobile journey to Pierrences.

A GECISVE MARK IN BERLIN.

In this connection, in an address to his army General Remembampf is quoted today in advices from the front axes, were stoned by a crowd at Chatesauroux during an automobile journey to Pierrences.

eral Renaenkampi is being driven back in the Sawalki District. The dermans are now moving eastward along the main railway line, and it is stated that they have continued any movements primary and LONDON, Sept. 30.—Homing pigeon so-cieties in Birmingham today placed 30,000 carrier pigeons at the disposal of the officials of the Government mail service.